She was also the publisher of Lucifer Magazine. Jesus is clearly not an imitation of Krishna and the Bible did not plagiarize pagan gods. Unlike the New Testament, which has been verified by manuscript evidence to be the most reliable and substantiated document in antiquity, the holy book of Hinduism went through drastic changes centuries after it was written. Zeitgeist Debunked "Krishna was born of a virgin named Devaki" — The basic story of Krishna's origin makes this claim laughable. In mythology researcher Joseph Campbell's book, Occidental Mythology, he writes of Krishna's origin: "In India a like tale is told of the beloved savior Krishna, whose terrible uncle, Kansa, was, in that case, the tyrant-king. She was a friend of Satanist Aleister Crowley and her writings inspired Adolf Hitler. You would be wrong.They quote from Justin Martyr many times about his concerns that pagans and Christians had some similar rituals (they did and modern scholarship is totally unsurprised by this). Satan and his rebellious host will thus prove to have become the direct Saviours and Creators of divine man. (we will address her later). The explanation of Krishna's death is stated clearly: " A fierce hunter of the name of Jara then came there, desirous of deer. The authors claimed that the amulet was a depiction of the god Dionysus on a cross, and thus, they concluded, Christianity must have copied the crucifixion account from the Greek god. And at the end of the day, the same people who are putting out the idea of Jesus being a copy of pagan gods all get linked back to the same false god: Satan. In a critique of this theory, researcher Ronald Nash writes: "Allegations of an early Christian dependence on Mithraism have been rejected on many grounds. Franz Cumont, considered the first great researcher of Mithras claimed that the disciples in the relief were actually people dressed up as Zodiac signs, showing how ludicrous the effort to link Mithras to Jesus can get. But I know of no references to a supposed death and resurrection." It is also important to note that for all of the research Franz Cumont did on Mithras, his overriding conclusion was that unlike Jesus Christ, who was a real person, Mithras did not exist. Thus a basic examination of the factual evidence shows that the Bible did not plagiarize from the story of Mithras. Jesus Christ had 12 disciples. This of course is the first lie of Satan in the Garden of Eden, who lured Even into sinning with the promise that "ye shall be as gods." The idea of achieving godhood and "ascension" is at the heart of the New Age movement today. The Egyptian God Horus. • Dr. Edwin Yamauchi states: "We don't know anything about the death of Mithras. We have a lot of monuments, but we have almost no textual evidence, because this was a secret religion. But they believed in polytheism. He is a second century writer who therefore predates all the pictures of pagan godmen being crucified and he writes: "But in no instance, not even in any of those called sons of Jupiter, did they imitate the being crucified; for it was not understood by them, all the things said of it having been put symbolically." Justin Martyr's First Apology LV. Her stated goal was the preparation of the minds of society to receive "the Christ", who is not Jesus but a great ascend wise master who will unite all the religions of the world, teaching the enlightened followers to godhood, led by the true god, who Bailey openly identifies as Satan. They were also nature worshippers. (source) Even if the amulet was real, it's dated to over 300 years after the crucifixion of Christ. And in her own writings she cites "D.M. Murdoch" as a source, which is citing herself. But these texts were written centuries after the New Testament. "Horus had 12 Disciples" — Historian Glen Miller writes: "But again, my research in the academic literature does not surface this fact. "Mithras was crucified. (source) So again, the account of Jesus' crucifixion at the orders of Pontius Pilate, just as the Bible details, was well-known even in non-Christian circles. He chose to die to offer Himself as a sacrifice to pay the debt for the sins of humanity. Was Jesus Christ an imitation of Dionysis? "Dionysus was born of a virgin" — Again, this blatantly flies in the face of mythology surrounding this pagan god. Almost every correlation between Krishna and Jesus can be traced to Kersey Graves, a 19th century author who believed Christianity was created from pagan myths. All with assistance from "the hierarchy" — angelic beings who could guide those with proper knowledge. For those who are in the "truth movement" or "Anti-New World Order", these ideas intend to assert that Christianity is just another form of control and was manufactured to manipulate people. Jesus was the Son of God and humanity's Savior. Skeptics claim a similar occurrence happened with Krishna but as the account above shows, only his six brothers were killed. Additionally, the book of Isaiah, which prophesied that a virgin would give birth to the Messiah of the Bible, was written 700 years before Christ and at least 100 years before Krishna. Blavatsky makes no secret of her allegiance: "One of the most hidden secrets involves the so-called fall of Angels. But as shown, the charges are ludicrous with the slightest inspection. That would destroy their case and reading the Jesus Mysteries you would assume that neither Freke or Gandy knew of such a source even if it existed. Archaeology Bringing the Past to Life Livestreams Discover something new. Dead for three days. Mithras with "shepherds." "Mithras was attended to by Shepherds" — This claim is based on the relief above. Through sorcery, Isis, assembled the body of Osiris and was impregnated with his phallus. The present day Bahagavad Gita has 700 verses. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. But suppose there existed an earlier source who stated categorically that no pagan godman was crucified. It came from Gerald Massey and Madame H.P. Blavatsky. She was also an ardent Luciferian. Mithras and his "12 disciples." "Mithra had 12 disciples." — This is based on the carving above which shows Mithras surrounded by 12 signs of the Zodiac. It just takes belief in what He did to receive eternal life. As we mentioned above, almost all of the sources cited by Zietgiest go back to Acharya S., author of "The Christ Conspiracy." But who is she? D.M. Moore, aka Acharya S. They came to his family home when he was a toddler. Virtual Tours Explore in 360 degrees Architectural Research Seeking the full history of the Williamsburg Bray School in a new initiative This was not the basis for Jesus Christ. Even if this were the case, they are just stars and not actual people who followed Horus, preached about him or recorded his life. Proving Jesus without The Bible" there are many secular historical sources that record His crucifixion as described in the Bible. Blavatsky, the founder of The Theosophical Society, is one of the main inspirations for the modern New Age Movement. It is Satan who is the God of our planet and the only God. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." (Matthew 24:3-5). Do not be deceived. No other religious figure receives close to the scrutiny that Jesus does. "Horus was crucified. Dionysus (also known as Bacchus) was a Greek and Roman god of wine. The authors of "The Jesus Mysteries" Timothy Freke and Peter Gandy had their sources for their information critiqued: When dealing with ancient sources they are even more blatant. And yet the Bible still stands as true. The movie spent over 30 minutes attacking the Bible and the Christian faith and specifically the idea that the story of Jesus Christ in the Gospels is nothing more than a copy of the story of the Egyptian God Horus, Mithras and other pagan gods. First off, her name is Dorothy Murdoch. The hunter, mistaking [Krishna], who was stretched on the earth in high Yoga, for a deer, pierced him at the heel with a shaft and quickly came to that spot for capturing his prey." Mahabharata, Book 16, 4 Not only was Krishna not crucified, his story sounds much more familiar to the account of the death of Achilles in Greek mythology than the account of Jesus' crucifixion. Blavatsky wrote her books via automatic writing" in which a spirit possessed her and used her body to write her books on mysticism and Luciferian New Age beliefs. One of the boldest claims of Jesus being a copy of Dionysus was a book called 'The Jesus Mysteries' which featured the amulet pictured below. Zeitgeist continues as do the skeptics with the idea that Christianity itself is a copy of the cult of Mithras, which was popularized in Rome in the 1st to 4th Century AD (note that it sprung up in Rome after the death of Christ and centuries after the Old Testament prophecies of the Coming Messiah). The two most common stories of Dionysus' birth involve the god Zeus, his father, either impregnating the mortal woman Semele, or impregnating Persephone (the Greek Queen of the underworld). In either instance, it is not a virgin birth (and it also gives allusion to the Bible's description of fallen angels impregnating human women, something written in the book of Genesis 2,000 years before the myth of Dionysus). So the Zeitgeist creators know most people will not research their attacks and just take it as factual (just as Dan Brown did with the numerous inaccuracies of the DaVinci Code). Jesus said: "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. As shown in the video below on the Zeitgeist film, it is pushing the exact same idea. Gandy did attempt to explain away this passage when it was presented to him but failed utterly and certainly could not say why he ever felt he could simply miss it out of his book. Was Jesus a Copy of Mithras? Ancient art depicting Mithras being born out of a rock, Jesus warned of one of the key signs of the end times approaching: "the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? Dionysus the Greco Roman god of wine. By the 4th century tens of thousands of New Testament manuscripts were in circulation all over the world and the Roman Empire made Christianity its official religion. Additionally, the Bible does not say "three wise men" came to see Jesus. And He is the only name which can be called on for salvation. We cited the Roman historian Tacitus who in 115 AD wrote: "Consequently, to get rid of the report, Nero fastened the guilt and inflicted the most exquisite tortures on a class hated for their abominations, called Christians by the populace. "(The Secret Doctrine, Volume II, Pages 215, 216, 220, 245, 255, 533). However, upon basic scrutiny, the claim falls apart. Mithraism had no concept of the death and resurrection of its god and no place for any concept of rebirth—at least during its early stages." In his book Image and Value in the Greco-Roman World, Richard Gordon writes that there is "no death of Mithras," and thus there is no resurrection of Mithras. They worshipped earth, stone, trees, rain, wind, fire, sun, moon etc. Jesus Christ was crucified. The Zeitgeist film makes a number of wild statements about Horus to attempt to prove that Jesus is a copy. And this is the basis for the information that went into making Zeitgeist. Though his works have been proven by scholars to be false and poorly researched (Source), many still ignorantly refer to his arguments not knowing they are easily disproved by simply comparing the Bible to the Hindu texts. On the basis of some third century pictures of crucifixions, the authors claim Bacchus [Dionysus] was crucified and Christians copied the idea. And Resurrected" — There is no historical record in any credible Egyptian mythology of Horus being crucified. Jesus Christ did exist. If you are wondering how Zeitgeist could make such wild claims, that have no real historical evidence, they benefit from the Skeptic's Fallacy; in short, when it comes to attacking the credibility of the Bible it is assumed that the skeptic is completely credible. get the information for her Christ Conspiracy book in the first place? And was resurrected." — This again is just a blatant mistruth in the face of Hindu mythology. The concept of one single Almighty God, or Supreme. Bhagavan, was introduced to Indian society. Who Is Acharya S? Clearly this was a sexual union and not a virgin birth. Christus, from whom the name had its origin, suffered the extreme penalty during the reign of Tiberius at the hands of one of our procurators, Pontius Pilatus, and a most mischievous superstition, thus checked for the moment, again broke out not only in Judaea, the first source of the evil, but even in Rome, where all things hideous and shameful from every part of the world find their centre and become popular. - A Critical Examination "Was Jesus a Copy of Horus, Mithras, Krishna, Dionysis and Other Pagan Gods?" This question is often asked especially in light of the viral film 'Zeitgeist' a mega-popular documentary about the New World Order and Illuminati. Additionally, as we detailed in our article "Did Jesus Really Exist? So if you now believe that Jesus was not just a copy of a pagan god, maybe it is time to start believing that He is indeed the Son of God who wants to spend eternity with you. But I cannot find TWELVE anywhere...]" Additionally, some of have said the 12 signs of the zodiac are the "disciples" of Horus. Thus Satan, once he ceases to be viewed in the superstitious spirit of the church, grows into the grandiose image. And then resurrected." — This charge in particular reveals the insincerity of the claims of plagiarism against Christianity. The Hindu God Krishna. "Krishna was crucified. "There was Infant massacre in all the land at the time of Krishna's birth" - In the Gospel accounts, King Herod, upon hearing the Jewish Messiah has been born, orders all Jewish male infants to be killed. Massey was a writer for Lucifer magazine. Her closest student, Alice Bailey, took over the reigns of the Theosophical Society as well as started the publishing company called Lucifer Trust (it is now known as Lucis Trust). But let's look at the claims against actual Egyptian mythology: "Horus was born on December 25th" — According to Egyptian mythology history, Horus's birthday is celebrated in the season of Khaki, which runs in the months of October and November, not December 25th. Thus the idea that a 4th century amulet was the inspiration for the Crucifixion in the Gospel's makes no sense. Blavatsky believed that through esoteric, occult magical practices, mankind could ascend and evolve to god-like status. If one takes the time, they will also notice that Zeitgeist gets almost all of its information from one source, a book called "The Christ Conspiracy" by a woman named Acharya S. "Mithras was born on December 25." — Once again, the date of December 25th is not mentioned in the Bible and thus holds no significance to the story of Jesus Christ. Additionally, in Mithraism there is no date of Mithras' birth. So right away, the claims of "plagiarism" look completely baseless. and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And it just takes belief in Him to receive eternal life and be freed from the punishment of hell. So most of the wild assertions of Zeitgeist are just being based on this piece of art. I can find references to FOUR "disciples"--variously called the semi-divine HERU-SHEMSU ("Followers of Horus") [GOE:1.491]. But most importantly, Jesus Christ died for you. And while there is non-Christian evidence and proof that Jesus existed, there is none to support that Dionysus was a real person who actually existed. And Jesus Christ was clearly not a copy of Dionysus. In Mithraism there is no historical mention of crucifixion, burial or resurrection in any artwork or text. This clever deception is helping to usher in the "New Order" that will be led by the Antichrist. It never tells us the number of wise men. on its cover. The original, called Gita had 84 (imagine the documentaries and books that would be made if it were discovered that the Bible went through such a drastic re-write!). In the book, The Gita As It Was: Rediscovering the Original Bhagavadgita, the author, Dr. Phulgenda Sinha, writes: Around 800 A.D., the original Gita was interpolated and ended up having 700 verses. She has been debunked and criticized by many serious historical scholars. But more importantly, where did xcasinobonuses Acharya S. I can find references to SIXTEEN human followers. "Three Wise Men Came to Adore the New Born Savior". No source is provided by the documentary for this claim. And I can find reference to an UNNUMBERED group of followers called mesniu/mesnitu ("blacksmiths") who accompanied Horus in some of his battles [although these might be identified with the HERU-SHEMSU in GOE:1.84]. The movie states: "Mithras was born of a virgin" — There are almost no early writings about the cult of Mithras and most of what is known is based on artwork (as opposed to Jesus Christ, of whom thousands of ancient manuscripts exist that describe His life, death and resurrection in detail). Was Jesus a Copy of Horus? "Dionysus was born on December 25th" — Once again, there is no pre-Christian manuscript or evidence of this. But according to historians, Mithras was born from a rock, not from a virgin or from a person at all. He therefore confined both her and her husband, the saintly nobleman Vasudeva, in a closely guarded prison, where he murdered their first six infants as they came." So from the basic origin story of Krishna, his mother had seven children before he was born, so she was clearly not a virgin. For a full presentation that debunks all of the claims of the Zeitgeist film see below: And for those who believe that can prove the claims of Zeitgeist there is a chance to win money at the website "Zeitgeist Challenge" (no one has won yet). This is their piece de resistance and they even put one of the pictures on the cover of their book. This should be a huge red flag to her credibility. Those special, enlightened ones could then form a super race that would rule over humanity. " No one else died on a cross for the sins of humanity. Whereas the accounts of Jesus' crucifixion exist in thousands of manuscripts from the century after his death. Jesus Christ was born of a virgin. Additionally Dan Brown author of the DaVinci Code, one of the most blasphemous, Anti-Christian books ever written, stated "nothing in Christianity is original" as he promotes the idea these mythological figures served as the basis for the Gospel accounts of Jesus Christ (Brown's latest book, 'The Lost Symbol', takes this idea to the extreme - an article on this book and the upcoming movie will be posted soon). Died for three days. Furthermore, the date of December 25th is never mentioned in the Bible as the date of Jesus' birth and thus has no relevance to the account of Jesus' life. In The Lost Symbol, Dan Brown also takes the plunge as he proclaims that Christianity is just a spin off of ancient mystery religions. Was Jesus Christ a Copy of Krishna? "Horus was a child prodigy teacher at 12" — The movie offers no pre-New Testament sources that state this. Because they hate the Bible and want to push a Satanic agenda. Additionally, crucifixion was a method of execution invented by the Roman Empire thousands of years after the time of the Horus myth. As the Devine Evidence blog states: In Hinduism, Krishna is believed to be the eighth avatar of Vishnu, the second aspect of the Hindu trinity. So the story of Christ's crucifixion was very well-known. And they did not come at Jesus' birth in a manger. This is another empty and false claim. Are the Bible accounts of Jesus plagiarizing the story of Horus, Krishna, Mithras, Dionysis and other pagan Gods? Unprecedented deception would be a major sign and Zeitgeist, The Lost Symbol and books like the Christ Conspiracy are just a few of the examples. In Mithraism, Mithras never dies. There are later Hindu texts that do draw more close parallels between Jesus Christ and Krishna. There is no reason to conclude that signs of the Zodiac are "disciples." Remember, there is no written record of Mithra's existence from the 1st to 4th centuries when the cult thrived. This article will show that not only are these claims incorrect and lack any substantive evidence, but that they are part of a greater spiritual agenda that Dan Brown, the Zeitgeist film and others have in common. In fact, the Bahagavad Gita, one of the main Holy Books of Hinduism, is now thought by Hindu scholars to have been drastically changed in 800 AD. He completed his earthly mission and returned to the skies in a chariot (ironically similar to the story of the Prophet Elijah in the Bible's Book of 1 Kings, written 800 years earlier). No honest scholar would simply fail to quote this vitally important contradiction to their thesis. Dionysus pictured on a cross, and Dan Brown ignore all of this just to try to attack the credibility of the Bible. The "Hymn to Osiris" which records this account states: "[Isis] made to rise up the helpless members [phallus] of him whose heart was at rest, she drew from him his essence [DNA material], and she made therefrom an heir [Horus]." (Source and Source). Which is why Satan has to work so hard to confuses the public and distort the message of the Bible. The most famous by far, was that Horus was born from his mother Isis, who was not a virgin, but rather a widow of the slain Osiris. Jesus did. Till then, before 800 A.D., Indians believed in God. The earliest existing account of Mithras' birth is found in a relief depicting him emerging from a rock with the assistance of men who certainly appear to be shepherds (which is interesting considering his birth was supposed to have preceded the creation of humans!). And of course the date of December 25th is not significant since it's not in the Bible. Some point to Dionysus' ability to create wine as a sign that Jesus was a copy (since Jesus turned water to wine at a wedding) but Dionysus was the god of wine. But of course, the Zeitgeist producers, Acharya S. The name was changed from Gita to Bhagavad Gita. The savior's mother, Devaki, was of royal lineage, the tyrant's niece, and at the time when she was married the wicked monarch heard a voice, mysteriously, which let him know that her eighth child would be his slayer. "Horus was born of a virgin" — There are two accounts of Horus' birth. Satan (or Lucifer) represents the Centrifugal Energy of the Universe, this ever-living symbol of self-sacrifice for the intellectual independence of humanity. Why? Such a blatant inconsistency should show a serious flaw in Mithraism research, but the Zeitgeist team again overlooks this. Furthermore, this relief dates to 4th century A.D., well after the Gospels had been written and distributed over most of the known world. The earliest writings are from outsiders recording their observations.
